- Song: We Remember (Marty Haugen)
  - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D6_KModMCtg
We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God!
Responsorial: Psalm 145

(Please form two groups, based on Last Names beginning with A-K or L-Z.)

Leader: I will extol you, my God and king; I will bless your name forever and ever.

All: I will extol you, my God and king; I will bless your name forever and ever.

- A-K: Every day I will bless you; I will praise your name forever and ever. Great is the LORD and worthy of much praise, whose grandeur is beyond understanding.

- L-Z: One generation praises your deeds to the next and proclaims your mighty works. They speak of the splendor of your majestic glory, tell of your wonderful deeds.

- A-K: They speak of the power of your awesome acts and recount your great deeds. They celebrate your abounding goodness and joyfully sing of your justice.

- L-Z: The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in mercy. The LORD is good to all, compassionate toward all your works.

- A-K: All your works give you thanks, LORD and your faithful bless you. They speak of the glory of your reign and tell of your mighty works.

- L-Z: The LORD is just in all his ways, merciful in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.

All: I will extol you, my God and king; I will bless your name forever and ever.

The Art of Questioning

PURPOSES AND TYPES:
The purpose for asking a question will determine what kind of question you are asking and will help you evaluate the response.

0. YES/NO QUERIES – Avoid these, since they stop conversation

1. INFORMATION SEEKING – asks for specific data; usually direct and concise.
   What are the names of the Synoptic Gospels?

2. INSIGHT – asks for a vision or insight into a topic based on the person’s experience and ideas.
   What do you suppose was Mary of Nazareth’s first thought when she knew of the lack of wine at the wedding in Cana?

3. OPINION SEEKING – leads to discussion.
   What do you think provoked Jesus to tell the story of the rich man and Lazarus?
The Art of Questioning

4. PROBLEM CENTERED – asks for an understanding of an existing problem. More and more Catholics seem to be turning to Fundamentalism in their approach to Scripture study. Is there some practical thing that our Bible Study Group can do about this trend?

5. EVALUATING – asks for an evaluation of an existing situation, program, or problem. Why is it that our parish seems to have such little interest in our existing adult religious education programs?

6. SCOPE WIDENING – tells you where the participant stands in understanding a topic or an expressed opinion. Do you agree with the scholars who propose that the Beloved Disciple might have been someone other than the Apostle John? Why, or why not?

7. LEADING – leads to an acceptance of a suggestion which might otherwise be rejected. Don’t you think that....?
The TIMING of Questions

TIMING IS IMPORTANT:

1. Allow thinking time before you expect the listener to respond.

2. Be sure not to cut off a response to ask another question.

3. Sometimes it is best not to ask a question but to allow time for reflection. Remember that some things are to be shared, not evaluated.
Characteristics of Good Questions:

1. Concisely stated; clear and unambiguous.

2. Appropriate for the persons addressed.
   Avoid using overly technical language.

3. Engaging, in that they require some extended response, rather than a simple ‘yes’ or ‘no’.

4. Simple, in that each question asks for only one thing, not several different things.

5. Organized, so that one question flows evenly to the next question.
Q’s to Evaluate Questions:

1. Does your question increase a person’s desire as well as capacity to learn?
2. Does it help to provide a person with confidence in his/her ability to learn?
3. Does it help to give a person a sense of joy in learning?
4. In order to get answers, is the person required to make inquiries?
5. Does each question allow for alternative answers?
6. Does the process of answering the questions tend to stress the uniqueness of each person?
7. Do the questions produce different answers if asked at different stages of a person’s development?
8. Do the answers help a person to understand the universals in the human condition and so enhance his/her ability to draw closer to other people?
Art of Questioning

EXERCISE  (to do on your own)

Based on Luke 1:39-45, formulate at least one question of each of the following types:

1. Information-Seeking Question –
2. Insight Question –
3. Opinion-Seeking Question –
4. Problem-Centered Question –
5. Evaluating Question –
6. Scope-Widening Question –
7. Leading Question –

Write in the space provided on the Handout (pg. 4).
Preparing Good Questions

Based on a webpage by Kendra McClelland (April 29, 2019)
https://www.evangelicalcatholic.org/2019/04/preparing-good-questions/

Three Basic Types of Questions

- Prepare in advance for better small-group discussion.
- These “types” are related to some steps of Lectio Divina
- Observation, Understanding, Application

Group Discussion Questions:

Lectio Divina Process:

READ > REFLECT > RESPOND > REST
Oratio & Contemplatio (FJ)

These two stages of Lectio Divina do not require extra preparation. The same questions can always be asked:

- For Oratio:
  What do you want to say to God (or to Jesus) in prayerful response to this scripture text? (prayers of adoration, contrition, thanksgiving, supplication?)

- For Contemplatio:
  What one word (or image, or short phrase) do you want to have enter most deeply into your heart? (repeat that word or phrase quietly, almost mantra-like)
1. Observation

(Lectio: Enter the Text)

Option A: Asking Good Questions:

- What is the main event or action in this story?
- What details of this passage stand out to you?
- What are the key images or concepts in this text?
- What words or phrases are repeated or highlighted?
- In narratives: Where and when does this story take place?
- In dialogues: Who is talking to whom? How do they respond?
1. Observation (Lectio: Enter the Text)

Looking carefully at the details in the biblical text.

Option B: Using the “Mark-Up Method”

- Distribute the reading on paper with plenty of white space.
- Provide pens for everyone.
- Ask someone or several people to read the passage aloud.
- Encourage everyone to spend 5 minutes in silence looking over the reading and marking it up.
- Suggest things to mark: whatever stands out for them, themes, repeated words or phrases, connections or contrasts within the text, confusing parts, or questions that arise.

Mark-up Method can improve participation, esp. from quieter members.

- But do not allow this method to replace your own prayerful preparation for the group discussion. Your advance prep remains essential to fruitful discussion. It allows you to make decisions needed during a discussion.
2. Understanding
(Meditatio: Probe for Meaning)

- Understanding questions search for meaning—both the original meaning, and what the passage means for us or for an individual today. They help us ruminate over God’s Word and seek to comprehend it.

- With understanding questions, answers will not be found directly in the text itself; they’ll require thought. Some understanding questions will be more objective in nature, others more subjective or speculative. Prepare three to four understanding questions per session.

Examples:

- How might the cultural attitude towards tax collectors have sharpened the sting of Jesus’ words here?
- How do you imagine Jesus felt when the rich young man walked away?
- What is the significance, for you, of the metaphor Jesus uses here?

Tips:

- Balance “head” and “heart” questions.
- Keep questions open-ended: No yes/no or “leading” questions.
12 Types of “Understanding” Questions

1. Definition (How would you define…)
2. Example (Give an example of…)
3. Explanation (How do you explain…)
4. Differences (What is the difference between…)
5. Similarities (What are the similarities between…)
6. Relationship (What is the relationship between…)
7. Value (How important is…)
8. Opposites (What is the opposite of…)
9. Feeling (How do you feel about…)
10. Synonyms (What is another word for…)
11. Summary (How would you summarize…)
12. Identification (Where do you see yourself in this…)}
The Power of “Experience Questions”

Experience questions are a type of understanding question.

- If we can draw out the experience of group members in their encounters with God, it enhances the quality of the discussion.
- Normally quite easy to ask; focus on lived discipleship; can sometimes elicit inspiring stories or personal sharing.
- Experience questions also lead well into application questions.

Examples (adapted from Kendra McClelland’s)

- Has anyone ever felt like Peter in this passage? How so?
- Have you ever said these or similar words to God? (Why, and what came of it?)
- Which of these types of soil fits best with your experience of faith?
- Have you ever witnessed a miracle of healing?
3. Application

(Actio or Operatio: Live It Out)

Resolution-based questions, oriented to life change, on concrete/practical levels.

- Where faith meets life, head meets heart, and heart drives us into action.
- Prepare one to two application questions per session, to stimulate conversation.
- Pope Francis encourages us to let the Scripture move us to do something:
  - “Another common temptation is to think about what the text means for other people, and so avoid applying it to our own life.” (Evangelii Gaudium, 153)
  - “It is good to ask, for example: ‘Lord, what does this text say to me? What is it about my life that you want to change by this text?’” (ibid.)

Examples:

- What, practically, does this scripture passage mean for us?
- How might the discussion we just had affect our lives this week?
- Do you see any practical applications here for your family, or for our parish?
- How does this scripture (and our discussion) challenge or encourage you to do something more, better, or different in your life of discipleship?
Preparing Good Questions: Exercise & Small-Group Discussion

Based on Luke 1:57-66, formulate two or three questions for each of these stages:

1. Observation (Enter the Text)
2. Understanding (Probe for Meaning)
3. Application (Live it Out)

- Work Individually First (10 min – before/after our 10 min. Break)
- Then “Break-out Group” Discussions (10 min)
  - Don’t answer the questions! Don’t discuss the content of Luke 1.
  - Just discuss if the questions “fit” in each of these three categories.
  - Also discuss how good the questions are for eliciting discussion.
Luke 1:57-66

57 When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son.
58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her.
59 When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, 60 but his mother said in reply, “No. He will be called John.”
61 But they answered her, “There is no one among your relatives who has this name.”
62 So they made signs, asking his father what he wished him to be called.
63 He asked for a tablet and wrote, “John is his name,” and all were amazed.
64 Immediately his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing
God.
65 Then fear came upon all their neighbors, and all these matters were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea.
66 All who heard these things took them to heart, saying, “What, then, will this child be?” For surely the hand of the Lord was with him.
Before, during, and/or after the break, spend 10 minutes writing some questions for the Exercise.

When we return, we’ll have small-group discussions.

YOUR other Ideas?
Discussion of Readings (HO):
Jane Regan, Forming a Community of Faith

- Chap. 3: Regan describes the following three goals of adult faith formation: 1) Relationship with Jesus (as individuals); 2) Affiliation with the faith community (esp. local parishes/churches); and 3) Participation in the mission of the Church (discipleship, evangelization, service). How will you and your teammates design and conduct your CBISA scripture-sharing project so that you and your participants can grow in all of these areas of adult Christian formation?

- Chap. 4: Think of a time when you were engaged in meaningful conversation about our Christian faith with a small group of adults. What characterized that conversation? What contributed to its effectiveness? What was most challenging about this kind of conversation?
Break-out Room Discussions

- In Adult Faith Formation, what is Evangelization, what is Catechesis, and what’s the difference between the two?
  - Which one is more important for Christian faith?
  - Which one do you personally need more of?
Please be back by 1:00 pm.

Faith-Sharing Guidelines
“Ten Commandments” – for SPEAKING and LISTENING

1. See Jesus in every member of your group.
2. Love each member just as she or he is today.
3. Treat everyone as well as you want them to treat you (the “Golden Rule”).
4. Share only what God is revealing to you about yourself and your own life.
5. Allow each person equal time to share with the group, but don’t force anyone.
6. Be courteous of one another. Allow each person to speak without interruption.
7. Listening is even more important than speaking (we have two ears, one mouth).
8. Do not try to solve another person’s problems. Do not teach, preach, judge, condemn, or give advice. Just listen and offer support.
9. Do not share with others outside the group what you heard in the group. Confidentiality is essential for the trust level of a group.
10. All members of the group assume responsibility for these guidelines. Gently remind and lovingly encourage one another if anyone forgets.
Lectio Divina Practice

- Matt 25:14-30
  - Parable of the Talents
  - 33rd Sun, Year A

- Facilitated by students 3&4 in each group (40+5 min)
  - One CBSIA Leadership Team member will listen in, but not participate.
  - That member will lead a brief evaluation at 2:00 pm.
  - All will rejoin the large group at 2:05 pm.
Lectio Divina: Process (ABS)

1) Reading (lectio) – hearing God’s Word in the Bible

2) Meditation (meditatio) – reflecting on the meaning of the text

3) Prayer (oratio) – speaking with God in praise, thanks, petition

4) Contemplation (contemplatio) – silence, listening to God

5) Action (actio) – letting the encounter affect my life & work

- Flexibly adapt these steps, as needed, for individuals and groups Group-Process Evaluation

- What method was used? Was it clear?
  - Q’s about Threshold, Six Weeks, other books?
- Did you include Reading of Scripture?
- Did you include Study/Discussion of Scripture?
- Did you include Application/Appropriation of…?
- Did you include Prayer? (formal, spontaneous)
- Did you include Silence?
- Did the “facilitator” make the process “easy”?
Facilitator Self-Evaluation

- Was I inviting, so everyone could share what they wanted, but without putting any individuals on the spot?
- Were my questions “open-ended” enough to lead to good conversations (not yes/no, or one-word answers).
- Did I keep my questions clear and short enough?
- Did I talk too much myself? Did I let others talk enough?
- Did I answer my own questions, because I felt no one else started talking soon enough?
- Did I resist the temptation to respond after each person (whether approvingly, or correcting, or adding)?
- Did I leave sufficient time for quiet? And for prayer?

1 Corinthians 1:3-9

A Reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, with all discourse and all knowledge, as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you, so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God!
Intercessions

- Leader: Let us give thanks to God for all the blessings in our lives.
- Response: We thank you, Lord, for all your works are wonderful!

1. We pray in gratitude for all that God has given us and continues to do for us each day, and we ask forgiveness for the many times we have not given thanks, but have taken God’s love for granted.

2. In gratitude for our Holy Father, Pope Francis, for our bishops, clergy, religious, and lay ministers, and for a strengthening of ecclesial vocations, that we may all strive to follow God’s call to holiness.

3. In gratitude for all who serve the common good of society: for civic leaders, lawmakers, and judicial officials; for our military and veterans; for police officers, fire fighters, and other “first-responders”; for all who serve in hospitals and social service agencies.

4. For all who are ill, especially suffering from COVID, Cancer, and other life-threatening diseases; for all who are homeless or live in poverty; for all the marginalized and the elderly who live alone; that they all may feel the care and loving presence of God.

5. For all who have died, whom we remember in this month of November: for members of our own families, parishes, and religious communities; and for all who have died alone and un-mourned.
Closing Prayer: Thanksgiving

- Final Prayer:

  Merciful God, your gifts to us are countless and your goodness infinite; as we come before you in this month of Thanksgiving with gratitude for your kindness and love, open our hearts to have concern for all other men, women, and children, so that we may share your gifts with them by our loving service. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

- Final Blessing

- Song: Now Thank We All Our God

"Each Gospel reading has a distinctive theme: the Lord's coming at the end of time (First Sunday of Advent), John the Baptist (Second and Third Sunday), and the events that prepared immediately for the Lord's birth (Fourth Sunday).

The Old Testament readings are prophecies about the Messiah and the Messianic age, especially from the Book of Isaiah.

The readings from an Apostle contain exhortations and proclamations, in keeping with the different themes of Advent." (Lectionary for Mass, "Introduction," chap. 5, par. 93)
