

Biblical Prayer: Lectio Divina

LECTIO DIVINA – Brief Introduction:

- “A Vital Encounter with the Lord”
 - Not just “Bible Study,” nor religious discussion based on the scriptures
 - Meant to be enlivening, existential, transformative, and uniting
- Lectio Divina is not just for monks and religious, but for all believers:
 - Individuals: use and adapt Lectio Divina flexibly to one’s own needs and style
 - Groups: provide a regular pattern to build openness and trust in a community
- “The Church in America should give high priority to prayerful reflection upon the Sacred Scripture by all the faithful. This Bible reading, accompanied by prayer, is known in the tradition of the Church by the name Lectio Divina, a practice that should be encouraged among all Christians.” (John Paul II, Ecclesia in America, 1999, p. 31)

LECTIO DIVINA – Basic Process:

1. Reading (lectio) – hearing God’s Word in the Sacred Scriptures as I/we read a short text aloud
 - What is the content? What does this biblical text itself actually say?
 2. Meditation (meditatio) – reflecting on the meaning and relevance of the text that I/we have read
 - What is the meaning? What is God saying to me/us through this text?
 3. Prayer (oratio) – speaking with God in praise, thanksgiving, contrition, petition, intercession
 - What do I/we say to God in response to this text?
 4. Contemplation (contemplatio) – listening to God more quietly in the silence of our hearts
 - How does this text make me/us feel in my/our relationship with God?
 5. Action (action/operatio) – letting the encounter concretely affect our daily life and work in the world
 - How will I/we change what I/we do today in response to hearing this text?
- Flexibly adapt the above steps, as needed, for individuals or groups, youths or adults, etc.
